

REMARKS

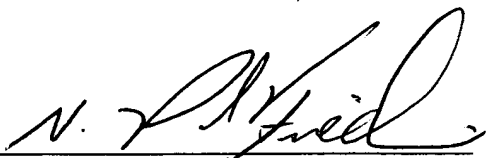

This is responsive to the Notice on Petition issued July 18, 2005. With this response, Applicant believes that application is in a condition for issuance. Applicant respectfully requests notice to that effect.

CONCLUSION

It is respectfully submitted that, with the present items, and in light of the above remarks, all of the presently pending claims should be seen to be fully supported by the present specification and to define an invention patentable over all of the art of record, whether taken separately or in any combination.

Should the Examiner be of the opinion that any minor matters remain to be settled prior to issuance, a telephone call to the undersigned attorney of record is respectfully invited to assure prompt resolution thereof. Counsel may be reached at:
